RUMORED RAILROAD EXTENSION.—It is reported that the president of the R. & D. Tailread company will come here from New York next week to have a consultation as to the advisability of extending the W. & A division of that road to the coal fields of West Virginia, and that the prospects of such an extension are bright. If this be so and the road be extended, Alexandria would become one of the chief coal shipping points in the country.

DAY OF ATONEMENT .- For twenty-four hours, begining with sunset, the Israelites of this city will observe the most important and most so emn church holiday of the year. It is a day of humils ion and prayer. This Day of Aton-ment is followed in a few days by a festival diametrically opposite, an occasion of great rejoicing and feasts. On the Day of Atonement prayers pleading for for giveness and the like form the great portion of the services, while in the later festival psalms of praise and thanksgiving to God for His bountiful goodness are sung.
